On the road to change

Elections Ontario has been on a path to:

Modernize
and improve the electoral process.

Re-shape
a century-old process to meet the needs of modern voters.

Balance
accessibility and integrity.

Maintain
the core covenants of democracy:
› accessibility
› one vote per voter
› secrecy
› integrity and security
New tech, new approach

The 2018 election was a significant milestone for the province...

Youth Registration
What is the Ontario Register of Future Voters (ORFV)?
The ORFV is a list of eligible future voters who are currently 16 or 17 years old.

If you’re on the list, your information will automatically be added to the voters list when you turn 18, meaning you will be ready to vote in the next election.

To be eligible for the ORFV, you must be:

- 16 or 17 years old; and
- a Canadian citizen; and
- a resident of Ontario.
Why the ORFV?
340,000 youth aged 16 and 17 in Ontario are eligible for advance registration.
By 2022, 850,000 youth will be able to either register on the ORFV or vote in their first provincial election.

The ORFV will give you all the tools and channels you need to participate in Ontario’s electoral process.

Shows your commitment to active citizenship and to take action in Ontario’s democracy.
Provides you with a voter information card (VIC) that explains how, when and where to vote.

Makes the voting experience easier, faster and more efficient for you.
Why vote?
Future voters are engaged and aware of the impact they have in their communities.

- 73% have signed a petition.
- 79% have donated money to a charitable cause.
- 57% have volunteered for a charitable cause.
- 57% discuss politics or political issues face-to-face or over the phone.
Voting is your right as a Canadian citizen. Exercise your power to vote and shape your future.
